Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science
Co-operative Education

The Sharda & S.P. Raheja Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship, valued at a portion of the income from the endowment, was established through generous gifts from the friends and family members of Sharda & S. P. Raheja. It is to be presented during National Co-operative Education Week and will rotate annually between the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Sciences and the Faculty of Business Administration. To be eligible, students must be in scholarship standing, and be enrolled in the co-operative program, having successfully completed work term four in Engineering, or work term two in Business in the previous scholarship year. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards, upon the recommendation of the Dean and Co-operative Education Office of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Sciences or the Faculty of Business Administration as appropriate.

If you feel that your student warrants consideration for this scholarship, complete the nomination below.

In what way did the student show initiative?
In what way did the student make special efforts to complete assigned tasks?
Was the student innovative and/or resourceful?
In what way did the student contribute to the success of the group or organization?

Student's name: _____

Supervisor's name: _____

Supervisor's signature: _____

Company: _____