

Summer Job Opportunity: Research Assistants

Grenfell Campus, Memorial University

Two summer Job opportunities for undergraduate students (preferably 2nd year or higher in Environmental Science/General Science/Environment & Sustainability) are available for Potato field research.

Details of the Position

- Offer: Mid-May to August 2026, 14 weeks (~35 h/week; $18.25/h)
- Workstations: M&M Farm, Junction Brook; Cormack, Deer Lake; and BERI labs, Grenfell Campus.
- Duties: Assist in the preparation and setting up of potato field experiments. Assist in soil, crop and greenhouse gas sampling, monitoring total and marketable potato yield; Soil sample preparation and analysis in BERI labs; Data recording and reporting.
- Benefits: Gain hands-on experience in agricultural research, improve field data collection skills, develop teamwork and problem-solving abilities in a real-world setting, and have the opportunity to work with graduate students, postdoctoral fellows and faculty.
- Potential starting date: 18 May 2026
- How to Apply: Email your CV to [epsathirana@mun.ca]
- Apply on or before: 6 April 2026

- ❖ Memorial University is committed to equity, diversity and inclusion and welcomes applications from all qualified individuals.

Contacts:

Dr. Mumtaz Cheema
AS 244
macheema@mun.ca

Dr. Lakshman Galagedara
AS 3020
lgalagedara@mun.ca

Dr. Sashini Pathirana
AS 214
epsathirana@mun.ca