

Department of Modern Languages, Literatures and Cultures
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
Teaching Term Appointment: 9-Month Position
Number: F05181

The Department of Modern Languages, Literatures and Cultures at Memorial University is hiring a 9-month, teaching-term appointment for the Fall 2025 and Winter 2026 semesters. The successful candidate will be a generalist in Peninsular or Latin American culture and literature but also well-versed in Spanish language instruction.

Teaching responsibilities will consist of six classes over the two terms, which include courses across the undergraduate curriculum: All levels of language, culture and civilization, film, and advanced language and culture studies.

Applicants should highlight any teaching and research expertise that aligns with these areas, or other relevant educational and professional experiences that make them well-suited to teaching these types of courses. Candidates must have a native or near-native fluency in Spanish, as well as a strong command of oral and written English.

In most cases, the successful candidate will have a completed PhD in Spanish or have status as a Doctoral Candidate (i.e., "ABD").

Applicants must submit:

1. a curriculum vitae
2. letter of interest outlining relevant teaching and/or research experience
3. statement of teaching philosophy
4. a dossier that includes samples of course syllabi and summary of teaching evaluations
5. the names and contact information of three referees

Memorial University is committed to employment equity, diversity, inclusion and anti-racism, and encourages applications from all qualified candidates, including women; people of any sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression; Indigenous Peoples; visible minorities, and racialized people; and people with disabilities. All applicants are invited to identify themselves as a member of an equity-deserving group(s) as appropriate. Applicants cannot be considered as a member of an equity-deserving group(s) unless they complete an employment equity survey. Memorial is committed to providing an inclusive learning and work environment. If there is anything we can do to ensure your full participation during the application process, please contact equity@mun.ca directly and we will work with you to make appropriate arrangements.

We acknowledge that the lands on which Memorial University's campuses are situated are in the traditional territories of diverse Indigenous groups, and we acknowledge with respect the diverse histories and cultures of the Beothuk, Mi'kmaq, Innu, and Inuit of this province.

The deadline for applications is June 23, 2025.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Candidates must therefore indicate in their application if they are a permanent resident or citizen of Canada. Salary is commensurate with experience as determined by the Memorial University of Newfoundland Faculty Association (MUNFA) collective agreement.
