

Direct Observation

Video Tape Review (VTR): Direct Observation and VTR's are a mandatory component of residency training during R1 and R2 Academic Family Medicine rotations and are used as a mechanism to provide constructive feedback to residents. Residents should expect that VTR's will be completed on a routine basis as per program recommendations.