

Global Health Committee Research Work

Research Outreach (2022-2024)

Current Research (2022-2024)

Future Work (2024-2025)

Understanding Witchcraft Beliefs and Practices in Transnational Spaces: Exploring the Case of Children in Ghana and among African Newcomers in Canada
(Project Co-Lead: Kimberly Jarvis)

Exploring Non-Indigenous Nursing Students' Knowledge and Attitudes Toward Indigenous Genocide and the TRC Calls to Action
(Project Co-Lead: Hrag Yacoubian)

Unveiling the silence: Developing and Evaluating an Intervention to Improve Access and Utilization to Sexual and Reproductive Health Services for Kayayei (head porters) in Ghana
(Project Lead: Kimberly Jarvis)

From Caregivers to Refugees: Oral Histories of Displaced Nurses, Health Workers, and Patients from Nagorno-Karabakh
(Project Lead: Hrag Yacoubian)

Healthcare Culture, Safety Attitudes, and Workplace Experiences of Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Internationally Educated Nurses (CALD-IENs)
(Project Lead: Esther N Monari)

Sustainable Working Conditions for Nurses in Hospital Settings in Finland: A Multilevel Mixed Methods Study
(Project Co-Lead: Ahtisham Younas)

Sociocultural and Environmental Determinants Affecting Self-Care of Patients with COPD: A Mixed Methods Study
(Project Lead: Ahtisham Younas)

Pragmatism and its Value for Nursing as a Practice Based Discipline
(Project Co-Lead: Joy Maddigan)

Committee Members: Kimberly Jarvis, Joy Maddigan, Esther Monari, Robin Devey-Burry, Hrag Yacoubian, Ahtisham Younas