Are you an undergraduate student? We would like to hear from you!

We are a group of researchers interested in understanding the accessibility of course instruction on Memorial University's St. John's campus and whether it is meeting the needs of undergraduate students.

Purpose of study:

The purpose of this research is to explore how Memorial University is supporting or could better support student learning through the adoption and promotion of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) within its undergraduate course offerings.

This research is being conducted by Dr. Suzanne Dufour (Professor, Faculty of Science, Memorial University) and her colleagues, Dr. Christina Thorpe (Acting Associate Dean of Science, Undergraduate and Administration, Memorial University), Dr. Jackie Hesson (Associate Professor, Faculty of Education, Memorial University), Mr.

Jason Geary (Manager, Blundon Centre, Memorial University), Mr. Sean Fardy (PhD Student, Faculty of Education, Memorial University), and Dr. Keith Power (Educational Developer, Centre for Innovation in Teaching and Learning, Memorial University).

What will you do?

Complete an anonymous 15-minute online survey that asks questions pertaining to:

- Basic demographic information (e.g., your age)
- Your learning experiences

Eligibility Requirements

- Be a Memorial University undergraduate student studying on the St. John's campus

Compensation

- A chance to win one of three $50 gift cards
