

CENTRE FOR SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Social Ventures Incubator 2025-26 Cohort (graduates)

AssuredHubs: Neha Kumari

A venture focused on simplifying rental accommodations for international students and newcomers, by providing a search and discovery platform that pairs vetted tenants with verified landlords.

DanDEllion Artists' Collective: Sandra Hewitt-Parsons

A disability community group, providing artistic exposure, empowerment, and work opportunities to creative people with disabilities.

Frontline Peer: Mike Taylor

A social enterprise that turns lived experience into evidence — whether you've worked inside the justice system or been processed by it. Frontline Peer™ helps justice-impacted people navigate bureaucratic barriers through narrative design, system negotiation, and editorial work that makes their accounts count.

FutureSprout: Pablo Baldiviezo & Yasaman Alidadi

A social venture that aims to address food insecurity in the province through vertical farming, with their simple, sustainable hydroponic kits so anyone can grow fresh food indoors, year-round.

InFact: Hasan Ahunov & Begim Akhunova

An impact-driven accounting platform for non-profits, non-governmental organizations and social enterprises.

MKS Productions: Oluwatoyin Awosanya, Lydia Makaga, Lina Makaga and Rosemary Makaga

A venture with a mission to produce and promote outstanding music events, plays and films that center marginalized artists.

True Taste Venture: Faith Kinyua & Erum Angbeen

A culturally rooted food venture offering authentic African and Asian cuisine made with natural, healthy, and nutritious ingredients.

CENTRE FOR SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Social Ventures Incubator 2026-27 Cohort (Inductees)

Afrotide: Fadeelatu Yussif

An African Caribbean grocery business dedicated to bridging cultural gaps through food. They provide native Africans and Caribbeans in Corner Brook with a taste of home while introducing Canadians and other nationalities to the rich and diverse flavors.

Labrador Arts: Nora Lakhani

A social venture that provides a transparent, ethical exchange between collectors and Labrador-based artists, facilitating authenticity, fair remuneration, and responsible shipping and export while stewarding the region's rich artistic traditions.

Local Cooks: Raunak Sarmacharya, Phil Rendell and Jawwad Ahmed

A food tech venture dedicated to transforming independent culinary talent into sustainable food businesses. They support chefs end-to-end, helping them navigate their options.

Our Common Threads: Sara Langer

A heritage and storytelling initiative documenting coastal identity in the French Shore through collaborative artmaking. The mission is to co-create a present-day cultural artifact connecting communities within the French Shore and beyond.

ReLab Art: Yiyin Liu

A creative social venture that collects discarded materials from university laboratories and other institutional spaces and transforms them into handcrafted art, functional objects, design pieces and educational kits.

Symphonic Service Dogs: Julia Silverman

A social venture that provides highly trained service dogs to individuals with disabilities in Eastern Canada. They provide lifelong mentorship, support, and a home for any dogs who cannot be kept in their placements.

