

TODO LIST

The first day of class is TUESDAY, SEPT. 9

❑ SET UP MUN LOGIN

Your MUN Login gives you access to online services like email, student services through my.mun.ca, online learning through Brightspace and more. Visit mun.ca/student-setup to get started.

❑ MATH PLACEMENT TEST (MPT)

Students seeking enrollment in an entry-level MATH or STAT course are required to write the MPT, a diagnostic test of basic skills in mathematics. Read more: mun.ca/math/mpt.

❑ CALCULUS PLACEMENT TEST (CPT)

Newfoundland and Labrador students who completed Math 3208 (Calculus) in high school and are seeking credit for Math 1000 should check mun.ca/math/cpt for more details.

❑ FALL COURSE OFFERINGS

For the fall semester, course offerings will be available in late June in my.mun.ca. You can start to build your class schedule when offerings are available.

❑ FALL COURSE REGISTRATION

Learn how to register for your courses and find your registration time in June on this page: mun.ca/regoff/registration/guide. Registration for fall courses begins in July.

❑ LABORATORY SAFETY

Registration for Science (SC) 1807 and 1808 is required as prerequisites for most lab science courses. Register for SC 1807 and 1808 at the same time as your lab science courses. Complete SC 1807 and 1808 before your first lab. Read more: mun.ca/science/undergraduates/laboratory-safety-for-students.

❑ ACADEMIC INTEGRITY and SEXUAL VIOLENCE AWARENESS AND PREVENTION

After you register for your first semester courses, you will be automatically enrolled in Academic Integrity (INTG 1000) and Sexual Violence Awareness and Prevention (SVM 0204). You must pass both of these courses before you can register for your next semester. Read more at mun.ca/fyi.

❑ MUN 101 and FALL WELCOME

Transition to university by completing MUN 101, your online orientation course. Find the full Fall Welcome schedule and other resources for new students in MUN 101 on Brightspace. After you register for your first semester courses, you will be automatically enrolled in MUN 101.

❑ ACADEMIC SUCCESS CENTRE (ASC)

The ASC is your hub for information about learning skills resources, accessibility services, the Peer-Assisted Learning program and workshops to help you succeed. Learn more at mun.ca/asc.
