

MUN Volunteer Residence of the Year Nomination Form

Award Description

This award is presented to a residence at Memorial that has made exceptional contributions to campus and/or community life through their group's volunteer efforts.

Nominee Criteria/Requirements

- The application should be based on the collective volunteer efforts of the members of the group, and not on the efforts of an individual student within the residence.
- The impact of the residence's volunteerism should go beyond the scope of Memorial University (i.e. should positively impact the community, province, nation, or world in some way).
- The nominated residence must have demonstrated a high quality of volunteer involvement and contributions. Quality over quantity of volunteer contributions will be valued.
- The nominated residence should be inclusive in their volunteerism, involving a significant number of residents in each of the events/activities.
- Involvement in new volunteer events/activities/initiatives in residence is valued.

Other Notes

- A residence can either self-nominate or be nominated by a colleague which can be a member of the campus community or the community at large.
- A residence cannot win the award two years in a row
